Any applicant with questionable rental history or a prior eviction may be subject to denial of application.
- Applicant credit reports must be in good and acceptable standing. Medical collection accounts will be the only exception in determining acceptable credit. Personal bankruptcies shall be allowable as long as the applicant meets all other qualifications and criteria and has re-established a good credit rating.
- Any and all adults must complete a rental application, be listed on the lease as a resident, and have full liability to fulfill all terms and conditions of the lease.

- A family may occupy a rental unit as long as the family does not exceed a maximum of two (2) persons per bedroom plus a child who is less than six (6) months old and who sleeps in the same bedroom with the child's parent or guardian. If the applicant is pregnant or has a child less than six (6) months old at the time of moving in and the newborn child reaches six (6) months of age during the lease term, the resident may stay in the unit for the duration of the lease term. However, if the number of residents exceeds the maximum per bedroom limit because the newborn reaches or exceeds the six (6) months limitation at the end of the lease term, the applicant must apply for and if accepted move into a larger unit, if available. Under no circumstances can the applicant remain in a unit where occupants exceed the maximum occupancy standards.

I have read and agree to the above rental criteria requirements.
